

Our hope is that you were challenged by Sunday's message and would desire to take the study a little deeper. Whether for personal study, family study, or for a Home Group gathering, use this study to go deeper.

Open

July 1, 2018

Then I was beside Him, as a master workman; and I was daily His delight, rejoicing always before Him... —Proverbs 8:30

As those made in the image of God and redeemed by the blood of Jesus Christ, we are now given every opportunity to display Him—His love, His character, and the things in which He delights—through faith and obedience. Would He really entrust me with the task of reflecting Him to the world?! The only way I can do that is by examining my heart against His word, which clearly describes the things that bring delight to our Father. Are they the things in which WE delight?

This Sunday begins a new sermon series, His Delight, My Delight, exploring the call to embrace the things that the Bible says please our God.

Main Point

In poetic manner, the voice of God's wisdom proclaims how she brings God pure delight, and why that matters to us.

Read Proverbs 8

Discuss

- According to Proverbs 8, how far back does God's wisdom go (vv. 22-29)? Why is that important?
- Throughout the chapter, wisdom, in first person, describes some of her responsibilities (vv. 12-16) What are some of them?
- What is quality of her speech (vv. 6-9)?
- A couple times, she describes her own worth (vv. 10-11; 17-21). Share with others examples of personal examples of how valuable godly wisdom is? Are there specific circumstances you've seen her worth play out in your life?
- What is wisdom doing in vv. 30-31? Does it explain why God delights in her?
- Near the end of the chapter, we "sons" are called to do some things as a response. What are practical steps today to accomplish those things?

Our hope is that you were challenged by Sunday's message and would desire to take the study a little deeper. Whether for personal study, family study, or for a Home Group gathering, use this study to go deeper.

Open

July 1, 2018

Then I was beside Him, as a master workman; and I was daily His delight, rejoicing always before Him... —Proverbs 8:30

As those made in the image of God and redeemed by the blood of Jesus Christ, we are now given every opportunity to display Him—His love, His character, and the things in which He delights—through faith and obedience. Would He really entrust me with the task of reflecting Him to the world?! The only way I can do that is by examining my heart against His word, which clearly describes the things that bring delight to our Father. Are they the things in which WE delight?

This Sunday begins a new sermon series, His Delight, My Delight, exploring the call to embrace the things that the Bible says please our God.

Main Point

In poetic manner, the voice of God's wisdom proclaims how she brings God pure delight, and why that matters to us.

Read Proverbs 8

Discuss

- According to Proverbs 8, how far back does God's wisdom go (vv. 22-29)? Why is that important?
- Throughout the chapter, wisdom, in first person, describes some of her responsibilities (vv. 12-16) What are some of them?
- What is quality of her speech (vv. 6-9)?
- A couple times, she describes her own worth (vv. 10-11; 17-21). Share with others examples of personal examples of how valuable godly wisdom is? Are there specific circumstances you've seen her worth play out in your life?
- What is wisdom doing in vv. 30-31? Does it explain why God delights in her?
- Near the end of the chapter, we "sons" are called to do some things as a response. What are practical steps today to accomplish those things?